Library

Spring Events
April is National Poetry Month – Poem in my Pocket Day

Poem in Your Pocket Day 2018 is on April 26 and is part of National Poetry Month. On this day, select a poem, carry it with you, and share it with others at schools, bookstores, libraries, parks, workplaces, street corners, and on social media using the hashtag #pocketpoem.

We Need Diverse Books display - during Diversity Week April 16-19, 2018
This organization has a mission to put more books featuring diverse characters into the hands of all children.
https://diversebooks.org/

Summer Professional Development
Ms. Little will be a panelist at the Evidence-Based Library and Information Practice presentation at the 2018 American Library Association Annual Conference with Trish Chatterley, Collections Strategies Coordinator, University of Alberta, Lee Ann Fullington, Health & Environmental Sciences Librarian, Brooklyn College; Pam Ryan, Director, Service Development & Innovation, Toronto Public Library. She will represent the school library perspective. https://journals.library.ualberta.ca/eblip/index.php/EBLIP/article/view/29425/21828

The conference will be a great opportunity with speakers including Doris Kearns Goodwin, Viola Davis, Carla Hayden, and Jose Antonio Vargas.

Plans for Summer Community Events
We will have three “Wednesday in July” events since July 4th falls on Wednesday this year.
The Senior Symposium

Is finished! We were able to complete the symposium in about three weeks’ time which leaves us with more time for additional meaningful chapel presentations. We assigned one tech person to each of the four venues. But the independence and change helped the students to be more flexible and many figured out the tech on their own. See more details - http://www.librarianlittle.com/2018/04/designing-research-symposium-for-high.html